MEMORANDUM

On April 25, 2013, Mr. Call appeared on a petition to Revoke Supervised Release. The violation of supervised released hearing was held before Judge Philip M. Pro. At the hearing, the Court ordered that Mr. Call's revocation petition be held in abeyance for six months. The Court continued Mr. Call on supervision under the previous conditions imposed. Additionally, the Court modified Mr. Call's conditions of supervision and added the following conditions: (1) that the Defendant shall reside at and participate in the program of a residential re-entry center for a period of up to six months as approved and directed by the probation officer; and (2) Defendant shall be confined to home confinement with location monitoring, if available for a period of three months and the defendant shall pay 100% of the costs of the location monitoring services. Mr. Call was remanded into custody until space was available at a residential re-entry center.

12 On May 3, 2013, USPO Ben Johnson informed undersigned counsel that space was 13 available for Mr. Call at the Las Vegas residential re-entry center. However, the re-entry center
14 would not accept Mr. Call without an order from the Court.

15 Therefore, Mr. Call respectfully requests that this Court sign the attached proposed
16 order so that the residential re-entry center will allow Mr. Call to reside at the re-entry center for a
17 period of up to six months as approved and directed by the probation officer.

18 || DATED this 3rd day of May, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,
